<sup>1</sup> Said to be a voyageur when he was married, he was a laborer in 1805 and a farmer in 1807 in St-Martin Laval.

<sup>3</sup> Drowned in the Chateaugay river on the 19th, he was found on the 21st and buried on the 22nd. He was 55 years old.

<sup>4</sup> Died from an outbreak of Cholera, and was buried the same day.

<sup>5</sup> Ste-Rose-de-Lima was a village on the Jesus Island, now part of Laval, like St-Vincent-de-Paul and St-Martin.
